introduction

This booklet, prepared by the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty (BCARF), is intended to offer assistance and information to faculty members who have retired or are nearing retirement.

It explains in summary fashion the benefits that Boston College currently provides for its retired faculty with links that describe those benefits that require frequent updates, especially medical. The booklet also supplies up-to-date information about privileges and services available to retired faculty and gives brief descriptions of the programs and activities that are designed to help retirees stay connected to their long-time colleagues and to continue their association with and involvement in the life of the University.

Benefit information, premium rates, enrollment schedules, vendors, etc., are subject to change from time to time. To assist you with your benefit-related retirement planning, the Benefits Office publishes a handout reviewing the ben-that ranged from a 90% Boston College contribution (for employees with 90 or more “points”) to a 55% Boston College contribution (for those with at least 55 “points”). If you have questions about the point system and/or what your designation might have been, please contact the Benefits Office at 617-552-3329 or benefits@bc.edu. For more information about this benefit and other retirement-related benefits, please use this link:

“Non-grandfathered” RMSA Eligible Employees

Effective January 1, 2012, Boston College implemented a new type of retiree medical program, a Retiree Medical Savings Account (RMSA). This plan will apply to full-time employees hired on or after January 1, 2006. It will also apply to full-time employees who were already employed on January 1, 2006, but whose age plus service on that date totaled less than 55 “points.” They are considered to be non-grandfathered, RMSA eligible employees. For more information about this benefit and other retirement-related benefits, please use this link:

Information on both the Grandfathered Benefits and the RMSA Benefits may be found on the same page of the Employee Handbook using the link above.

Whenever you have any questions regarding your Boston College benefits, retirement related or otherwise, always feel free to contact the Benefits Office at 617-552-3329 or benefits@bc.edu.

retired faculty privileges and services

boston college association of retired faculty membership

REGULAR MEMBERS

Boston College faculty members are automatically eligible to become regular members of the Association at the end of the academic year in which they formally retire or conclude active service to the University. Teaching an occasional course or performing another short-term post-retirement assignment within Boston College does not delay this entitlement.

All regular BCARF members are entitled to participate in all activities of the Association, to vote for Officers and Members-at-Large of the Executive Committee, and to hold such offices upon election by the membership for the terms, and subject to the total time limit as set forth in Article V of the bylaws.

HONORARY MEMBERS

Association members may propose to the Executive Committee for approval the names of retired university administrators who have made major contributions to the University and the BCARF. Honorary members may participate in all programs and activities of the Association, but may not vote or hold office.

Faculty will continue to use the same Boston College ID card that they used prior to retirement. The ID card is necessary for library use and Bookstore discounts. Retired faculty receive the same Bookstore discounts as active employees. Retired Faculty may continue to use their BC email address or redirect email to an address of their choice. The Benefits Office will request that your email access be retained. Note that each year, you will receive an email from IT asking if you want to continue with the email access. You must respond to the email annually to continue with email access. Please notify the BCARF President of any change in your mailing address or your email address so that the latter may be updated.

All of the Boston College dining facilities are available to retired faculty, including the Faculty Dining Room and the Players Club for faculty and staff only. McElroy Commons on the Main Campus and Corcoran Commons on the Lower Campus serve as the primary dining halls. There are also many restaurants and snack bars across campus.

Although at the present time there are no food service facilities at HPP, the Program Meetings and Topical Seminars are preceded by a buffet luncheon for those in attendance.

For information on dining facilities, including days and hours of operation, call 617-552-2263 or go to www.bc.edu/dining.

tuition remission for academic courses

Retired faculty may attend academic courses offered at the University (excluding the Law School), tuition free, under the following conditions:

1. The course is not filled by regular students.
2. The course instructor gives his/her approval.
3. No more than two courses are taken in a semester.

It is assumed that courses will be taken for enrichment or to satisfy intellectual curiosity and that retired faculty might be able to make an informal arrangement with the instructor before the course begins. If course credit is desired, the faculty member must enroll formally through the Registrar's Office and obtain a Tuition Remission Voucher from the Benefits Office.

In certain courses there are fees or charges for equipment and/or supplies. All students, including retired faculty, must pay these charges as well as any applicable registration fees.

The spouse of a retired faculty member may also audit a course tuition-free by similarly making an informal arrangement with the course instructor.

athletic events and recreational facilities

Retired faculty have the same access, including discounts, to athletic events and to the Margot Connell Recreation Center as do the active faculty. Presentation of an ID card is required. The Margot Connell Recreation Center requires a letter from the Benefits Office confirming the retiree status of the faculty member.

Retired faculty members and their immediate families may skate at Conte Forum free of charge during general skating sessions on school days and at a nominal charge per person during evening, weekend, and holiday sessions upon presentation of an ID card.

multi-cultural events

Throughout the academic year, Boston College sponsors a variety of multi-cultural activities open to all members of the University community. These include theater and dance events, University Chorale concerts, various musical and dance programs, lectures, guided tours of exhibitions at the McMullen Museum of Art, liturgical events, and many other events.

Notices of events are given in The Boston College Chronicle, in The Heights, and on the Events Calendar at events.bc.edu. Retired faculty are encouraged to participate in the multi-cultural events and to contact the offices of the sponsoring organizations to be placed on their mailing lists.

museum memberships

Boston College has memberships in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, the Gardner Museum and the Harvard Museum of Natural History. Retired faculty members can use a BC ID for free access to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. For admission to the Gardner Museum they can request individual day passes at the O'Neill Library Circulation Desk. OM

on-campus parking for bcarf activities

Ample parking is available at 300 Hammond Pond Parkway for all BCARF programs and activities. The building is just a short distance north of the entrance to the Chestnut Hill Mall and less than two miles from the Chestnut Hill Campus. No Boston College parking permit is needed.

If desired, a retiree may purchase a “G” permit for the year for parking on the Chestnut Hill or Brighton Campus. For complete information go to www.bc.edu/offices/transportation (Click on Visitor/Guest Parking) or call the Office of Transportation at 617-552-0151 or send an email to transportation@bc.edu

bcarf programs and activities

BANQUET COMMITTEE

A festive Annual Banquet, which concludes BCARF's activities for the year, is held a few days after the University Commencement with up to 100 or more retired faculty and their guests usually in attendance. The Committee is responsible for site and food service arrangements, providing the evening's entertainment, obtaining gifts for the door prize raffle and extending an invitation to the Provost or the Vice Provost for Faculties to give an update on the highlights of the past academic year and a look at the year that lies ahead.

program meetings

There are seven Program Meetings of the BCARF each academic year, three in the fall and four in the spring to which all retired faculty are invited. Each of these mid-day gatherings (11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.) features a presentation on a topic of particular interest to the members, preceded by lunch and a brief business meeting.

The Program Coordinator, Alec Peck (peck@bc.edu), has the responsibility of selecting topics of general interest to the membership and of identifying knowledgeable members of the faculty or administration, or others from outside the University, to be presenters. Once the year's meeting calendar becomes available during the previous spring semester, the Coordinator must contact prospective speakers well in advance in order to confirm their availability and willingness to address the retired faculty. When an engagement has been confirmed, a designated contact person must obtain a copy of the speaker's resume and the title of the presentation. This information is sent to the Website Editor for posting on the website. The presenter must provide a list of services needed to the Information Technology, Technology Support Supervisor (2-4219). The designated contact person or another retired faculty member introduces the guest speaker at the Program Meeting.

Normally a grant will be from $100 to $1,000 per person. A committee appointed by the Executive Committee of the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty will review all applications and make the awards.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

For the academic budgetary year July 1 to June 30, an announcement will be made to the membership in April, calling for proposals and setting deadlines for proposal submission.

Applications should include the following:

- Description of proposed project (two pages maximum)

- Summary CV

Description of proposal might include:

- Objectives of the proposed work and its significance
- Relationship of proposed project to your longer term goals

CRITERIA OF SELECTION

The merit of the proposal as judged by the reviewers will be the primary criterion. In addition, priority will be given to projects that will:

- Assist retired faculty members to sustain or redirect their careers in the areas of research education, education or service or to make significant progress on important projects
- Likely to produce significant results
- Assist in bringing existing projects to a successful conclusion

- Reflect favorably on the University and its community of retired faculty

annual banquet

A few days after Commencement, up to a hundred or more members, spouses and guests enjoy a cocktail reception and dinner in the Murray Function Room in Yawkey Center. The bonus of the timing is that there is parking right outside the door! It is a wonderful opportunity for members to review connections with friends and colleagues. The Provost or Vice Provost for Faculties is invited to give an update on the highlights of the current academic year. Musical entertainment adds to the celebration. Contact: Maria E. Brisk (maria.brisk@bc.edu)

CONVERSATION PARTNERS PROGRAM

The main role of a conversation partner is to meet once a week with an international graduate student at a mutually convenient time and location and seek to help the student improve his or her English speaking skills and learn about Boston College and American culture.

Partners have to be members of the Boston College Community, be willing to commit to one hour per week, and attend a 30-60 minute orientation. Contact: Adrienne Nussbaum (adrienne.nussbaum@bc.edu)

association of retirement organizations in higher education (arohc)

AROHE, the first national and international association of retiree organizations, is committed to advocating for, educating, and serving retired faculty and staff in higher education. AROHE brings together the talent, knowledge and experience of retired faculty and staff to improve the quality of their lives and that of their communities and institutions through creating new models of retirement. In 2002 AROHE was formally incorporated as a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization. The BCARF Executive Committee is on the AROHE listserv for announcements and newsletters. Two members of the Executive Committee attend AROHE's biennial meeting.

At the AROHE 2012 Biennial Meeting Dennis Taylor made a presentation entitled "Retired Faculty Research Seminars." And at the 2018 Biennial Meeting Jean Mooney, Jean O'Neil and Judith Wilt gave a 20 minute presentation on "Boston College Association of Retired Faculty: Planning, Growing and Dreaming" and hosted a Resource Table featuring our Newsletter and Faculty Guide.

To be nominated, a member must have expressed a willingness to actively serve if elected. The slate prepared by the Nominating Committee, along with any additional nominations will be distributed to the BCARF membership at least thirty days in advance of

The Executive Committee will meet monthly, except for July and August, and at other times as deemed appropriate and necessary, for the purpose of transacting the ongoing business of the Association.

The Association's Annual Meeting of the membership will be held during May each year. Results of the election of Officers and Members-at-Large of the Executive Committee will be announced, and such other business of the Association as determined by the President and/or the Executive Committee will be conducted. Written notification of the Annual Meeting will be provided to all members at least ten working days in advance of the meeting.

Topical Seminars and Program Meetings of the membership will be held during the University's academic year. Dates of Seminars and Program Meetings will be posted on the Association website, and invitations to the Seminars and Program Meetings will be emailed to all Association members at least one week in advance of the scheduled meeting.
