

Unit 1: Basic Human Rights

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and is not a replacement for legal advice from a trained attorney. All information is current as of the date it was produced (September 2014).

END OF LESSON REFLECTIONS: The teacher asks the students at the end of each lesson what they learned and how they felt doing these activities. The teacher may want to take notes based on what students share to help in preparing the lesson for the following week. Guiding questions for instructors to pose to students include:

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for student reflections or teacher notes.
